We understand and accept the risks of travelling and living in a foreign country. We understand that while ExchangeMate endeavors to make suitable arrangements for school and accommodation with selected pre-screened host families, anything may happen. We have enrolled our child in the program because we believe he/she is mature enough to cope with everyday situations in a foreign country and whatever unforeseen situations that may arise. We release ExchangeMate, its officers and directors, employees, local coordinators, host families, schools, representatives, partner organizations, travel agents, chaperones, tour guides, and the sending organization, from any and all liability claims or demands that may be asserted in connection with any emergency, accident, illness or injury involving our child's participation in the program or any cause, event occurrence beyond the control of ExchangeMate - including but not limited to those relating to or connected with natural disasters, pandemics, civil disturbances, acts of terrorism, wars, negligence of parties not subject to ExchangeMate's control. We understand that ExchangeMate reserves the right to make changes in the program where situations dictate, and that ExchangeMate reserves the right to make any changes to the High School Program Terms & Conditions or application documents at any time during the application process. In such cases, the new documents will be sent for review and signature. New documents replace and supersede any documents previously provided and signed.

We authorize ExchangeMate, its employees, local coordinators, representatives, partner organizations, school, and adult members of our child's host family to act on our behalf in any emergency, accident, illness, or injury involving our child.

We further understand that ExchangeMate reserves the right to dismiss or send home any participant whose health requires this action, or who fails to comply with any local, state, or federal laws; host family, school, and any other ExchangeMate's program rules and policies outlined in the program Terms & Conditions. We understand that in the event of dismissal/termination and/or early return, the Cancellation Policy outlined in item 15 of this agreement will take effect. In such cases, we agree to make travel arrangements for our child to return home within 48 hours of program termination. We agree to immediately reimburse the host family, school, ExchangeMate or others for any damage or outstanding debt caused by our child during his/her participation in the ExchangeMate High School Program.

We sign below to confirm our understanding and acceptance of the ExchangeMate Program Terms & Conditions and all statements outlined in this Agreement.
